masking tape

There is a motive with artistic masking tapes.

美しいマスキングテープには理由がある。

It has been six years since we started to apply traditional Japanese patterns, works of world-famous artists and fine designs to industrial masking tape, typically used in construction and painting, to color our lives.

"mt" continues to evolve by offering impressive styles without concessions on mt's design, printing and adhesive quality to touch people's hearts.

Kamoi is delighted for mt to win the hearts of people.

The delight will keep us pushing the boundaries of artistic masking tape.

Saul Bass

Saul Bass (1920-1996) was a celebrated American graphic designer and filmmaker, but he is best known for his design on animated motion-picture title sequences. During his forty-year career he worked for some of Hollywood's greatest filmmakers, including most notably Alfred Hitchcock, Otto Preminger, Stanley Kubrick, and Martin Scorsese. Among his most famous title sequences are those for Preminger's The Man with the Golden Arm, and Hitchcock's North by Northwest and Psycho.

mintdesigns

mintdesigns aims for the creation of products with which we establish a style by designing clothes that are the result of product designing. mintdesigns' brand concept is "design" which means well-being and makes our day-to-day lives rich. Through this, we suggest the potential of "fashion" which is not synonymy with a word "current trend." The brand name "mintdesigns" includes the word "mint," which has the meanings of "mint-condition" and "scarcity value" in addition to the image of fresh herb.

Almedahls

Almedahls has been one of the most traditional textile manufactures in Sweden since 1846. In no less than the 170 years of its history, Almedahls has created various textile styles from classical styles to completely novel styles, loved by many people, including the general public and the royal family, in many situations. Over many years its products have continued to be loved not only by people in Sweden and northern Europe but also people around the world. Currently, Almedahls is developing a collection which is a revival of styles that were designed mainly from the 1950s to the 1970s. These styles include some created by external designers especially for Almedahls as well as those created by Almedahls in-house designers. Olle Eksell, a giant in the world of Swedish design, Marianne Westman and Astrid Sampe, are just a few of these external designers and this collection is now extremely popular.
