Les Olivades

The traditional brand which has the meaning of "Harvest of olives" has continued since 200 years in Southern France. Provence in Southern France has the head office of Les Olivades. The land is full of sunlight, fresh air, and rich nature. Gogh, Gauguin, Cezanne are fascinated by the beautifulness of it, and left masterpieces in history. Les Olivades has transmitted the long history and tradition to posterity, since Indian cotton arrived in Marseille Port in the time of Louis XIV.

Erik Bruun

Erik Bruun is a Finnish graphic designer born in Viipuri April 7th 1926. Bruun spent his childhood in Säiniö, outside Viipuri, since 1944 part of Russia. During the war the family moved to Helsinki where Bruun started to study graphic design at the University of Art and Design. He graduated as a graphic designer in 1950. In 1953 he founded his graphics company. Bruun has designed a numerous amount of logotypes, brand guidelines, posters, books, annual reports for Forest Industry companies stamps and even Finnish banknotes. His latest effort is the joint project of designing textiles with Vallila Interiors. His posters, postcards and stamps mainly describe the Finnish beautiful nature. He has designed the symbol for The Finnish Association for Nature Conservation, a Pro Bono -act that describes his deep love for the nature and his concern about it's sustainability. In 2007, Bruun in was awarded the Pro Finlandia medal. The Art's Council of Finland has granted him the title Professor, a tribute to Erik Bruun's long-term work in the arts.

THE ORIGINAL
MORRIS & Co

FOUNDED BY WILLIAM MORRIS IN 1861

William Morris

William Morris (1834 - 1896) William Morris, the great designer, poet, thinker and craftsman, was also known as the father of modern design in the latter part of 19th century in England. Morris found great values in the "pleasure of craft making" and the "beauty of natural materials," and this belief of his became a movement that spread throughout the world. Before long, it reached Japan in the Taisho period as a folk craft movement. About 120 years have passed since William Morris' s death, however, the "belief" that he left has been inherited wholeheartedly and his excellent designs and styles survive to this day in Morris & Co.'s interior decor, along with an aesthetic strategy. It is created continuously and distributed around the world. It seems that his quote, "Have nothing in your house that you do not know to be useful or believe to be beautiful," is still meaningful to us living in the present day.

Lisa Larson

She was born in Harlunda in Smaland region of Sweden in 1931. She entered The Gothenburg Ceramic Art School in 1949 when she was 18, she studied ceramic art there. In 1954, her graduation work at HDK School for Design and Crafts in Gothenburg was discovered by Stig Lindberg, which gave her the opportunity to work at Gustavsberg where Stig was working as the director of art. She played an important role in the start of the golden age of ceramic work in Sweden. In 1979, she left Gustavsberg where she had stayed and worked as a main designer together with Stig Lindberg and Karin Bjorquist for 25 years. During her time at Gustavsberg, she created over 300 works of art. After leaving Gustavsberg, in 1980 she started to work actively on a freelance basis, working for HAVgands, DUKA and jceramic. In 1992, she returned to Gustavsberg and opened her own ceramic studio. The number of collectors is increasing rapidly not only in Sweden but round the world. She has held exhibitions in many places around the world. She still continues her life as a creator. Lisa Larson is now an older lady who is always thinking about what is the "cutest" in the world. She is a ceramic artist representing Sweden and together with her husband, who is a painter, she lives as a ceramic artist in a forest a little far from the city center.
